

A collection of miniature figures and terrain for a tabletop game, arranged on a dark, textured surface. The figures include a large green dragon with orange wings, a knight in blue armor, a wizard in a blue robe, and various smaller creatures like a goblin, a dwarf, and a dragon. There are also several small, colorful, block-like objects (yellow, blue, red) and a small, white, horse-like figure. The background features a large, colorful illustration of a knight on a horse, and a framed picture of a dragon. The overall scene is a detailed miniature setup for a tabletop game.
