

ART PROJECT HANNOVER Meet! 2011

Application Form

Meet! is an art project brought into life by an art group from Hanover. Other artists are, however, invited to participate in the project as well. The hosts will carefully view handed-in works & concepts and chose further contributions.

Conditions of participation

Artists from all over the world are invited to hand in their concepts or works from any genre or form art may offer - including music and literature. The delivery of a complete application form in due time (deadline is the 1st August 2011) is a prerequisite for the participation. Until the 15th August 2011 the hosts will chose and inform the participating contributors.

Please e-mail or mail us your applications, containing:

1. the application form, including personal data and up to three works/concepts
2. visual material of the work(s) in the form of photos (not exceeding the A4 format, limited to ten photos) or a DVD (not exceeding ten minutes)
3. a short description of the work/concept (not exceeding half a page) including some explanations of the original idea or intention behind it.

Incomplete applications cannot be regarded.

Organization

Meet!2011 takes the responsibility and covers the costs to print invitation cards and posters and promote the project.

Meet!2011 assures that an insurance covers all participating works for the duration of the exhibition.

The artists will cover the costs of – and take full responsibility for – the transport of his/her works. The artist will make sure that his/her work(s) arrive(s) in due time before the beginning of the exhibition and is picked up afterward (precise dates will be announced along with the confirmation of participation).

Rights

The applicant allows Meet!2011 free usage of his/her photos/excerpts for the purpose of the promotion of Meet!2011. Further, Meet! is allowed to keep the complete handed-in application. The applicant guarantees that all Contributors/ individuals involved in his/her work agree with the participation in Meet!2011, also knowing that this participation is unpaid. Further, the applicant assures that no rights of any other party will be violated. The hosts and organizers of Meet!2011 will be kept free from any complaints, charges and damages as far as the applicant and his/her work is concerned.

In case of video work, Meet!2011 is allowed to make a copy/DVD for the purposes of the exhibition and, further, to keep a copy/DVD for the internal archive.

The submission of art works/concepts equals the unconditional acceptance of the listed above conditions and rights.
